Confirmation

Dear Sirs and Madams,

I herewith confirm that Adnan Jašarević has taken part in the PSI - Projekat studentskih istraživanja (English: Student Research Project) organised by Asocijacija za napredak nauke i tehnologije (English: Association for the Advancement of Science and Technology) in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina. The title of his project was Loops and mask residuals in the Cosmic Microwave Background. He was mentored by our member Amel Duraković (Postdoctoral researcher at Institute of Physics of the Czech Academy of Sciences) and James Creswell (Postdoctoral researcher at LMU Munich), from May 2021 until November 2021.

Yours Sincerely,

Adnan Mehonić

President, Association for the Advancement of Science and Technology

Assistant Professor, University College London
